

Indiana law has given me back my privacy. Business should not have the ability to call or e-mail at will. " existing customer " this is a diversion ploy to get at my money. These phone calls can be upsetting to senior citizens who think they must respond to all inquiries because of their more rigid upbringing.